Camp Suisse 2010

Letter from the Camp Directors

Dear Parents, Campers, Staff and Friends of Camp Suisse,

We are really proud to present the first ever Camp Suisse souvenir book.

For parents, although you have already received the souvenir DVD of photos, we hope this book will offer a meaningful additional snapshot of the events and activities your youngsters have been involved in, the fun they've had and the achievements they have made during their time with us.

For campers we offer this book as a memento of the Camp, the friends you made and the memories you will take away from summer 2010, whether the camp was a once in a lifetime experience or yet another camp session under your belt.

'Kings of Camp' this year were Alexis Camu, Benjamin Painter and Daniel Yarte Villaseñor and a huge thank you goes out to them for their immeasurable contribution to the camp and for being excellent role models for other campers. In recognition, these three youngsters are invited back as complimentary guests in 2011.

As the feedback forms come flooding in we are delighted to see that year on year we offer a camp experience that is rewarding for our youngsters in so very many ways and which offers travel, adventure and excitement as well as a significant positive contribution to the personal development of those in our care.

We will now busy ourselves with preparation for summer 2011 where we will once again be proud to welcome a diverse and fabulously interesting group of youngsters from all over the world to share in the magic at Camp Suisse.

For those youngsters who did a one-week programme in the first week of a session and those of you with special departure arrangements, your photos will not appear in the group shots (you were too busy having fun for us to run multiple photo shoots), but everyone gets a mention.

Please email us your thoughts on the book.

Thank you for your support.

Best wishes,

Julie Tyler and Richard Young
Camp Directors, International Camp Suisse

2010 Favourite Shots

Activities at Camp Suisse are divided into: outdoor pursuits (mountain biking, climbing, ghyll scrambling, camping...), cultural events and excursions (cheese and chocolate factories, dog sledding on the glacier...), sports (football, hockey, tennis...), language courses, and the plain old 'good fun' stuff (Aquaparc, Olympics, tree top courses...).

Across the board, activities at Camp Suisse offer the opportunity for improving performance in specific skills via training and guidance delivered by highly skilled specialists. In sports, coaching is offered at a range of levels with mentoring and support offered throughout.

We have a lot to squeeze in to 13 days so of course it is impossible for all youngsters to partake in all activities. We do our best to strike the perfect balance suitable to the particular group and of course the weather!!! This is why so many youngsters return year on year as no two camps are the same!

We hope you will like this brief glimpse at a few of the activities we got involved with this year...

Ghyll Scrambling

See you next year!

“People will forget what you said; people will forget what you did, but they will never forget how you made them feel...”

We welcomed over 500 campers in 2010 and we know many of you will be back for more action at Camp Suisse in 2011. We look forward to seeing old and new faces when we open our doors again in June. Our international youngsters can enjoy the longer dates we are offering next year, with up to 6 weeks of international programmes running. We have such a demand for our international sessions that we have added an extra two-week session in early July, so whatever your school dates you should be able to squeeze in a visit to Torgon!

This year saw ups and downs, thrills and spills, and more action than ever before. Amongst our youngsters we discovered enormous and impressive talents; future pianists, singers, magicians, tight-rope walkers, sports stars, cyclists, linguists and of course a food critic or two.. We are always delighted to uncover the diversity of abilities amongst our campers and proud to add new strings to their bows.

Aside from developing talents and abilities, we take pride in our contribution to campers' life skills which are invaluable today.

Negotiation, compromise, leadership, compassion, problem solving and reasoning are but just a few of the areas on which we focus our energies throughout the summer.

On the cards for next year we have more activities than ever before for our youngsters to get stuck in to... a new alpine outpost, lake-side cycling, a forestry trail with obstacle course, including a mountain bike park and our very own zip wires... and much much more. ...

Please follow us on facebook at the 'International Camp Suisse Group' or via our online camp journal at www.campsuisse.com for all the latest news and gossip from camp!

Bye for now and thank you from all at Camp Suisse. :-). Be good...
