A Letter from the Camp Directors...

And breathe! It's incredible how a summer can pass by in the blink of an eye. From welcoming our first school groups way back in May right through to waving off the last of our international campers at the airport, it feels like just three weeks not three months have passed by.

Having said that, now the pace has started to slow down, a great sense of achievement has started to set in. This achievement is only possible thanks to our highly motivated, extremely dedicated and unbelievably talented team of staff; from the kitchen to the activity staff, the domestic staff to the group leaders - each team has consistently performed to the highest possible standards.

This of course makes our fundamental goal - to provide an unparalleled summer camp experience - a whole lot easier. That's just one half of the job however; without our campers none of the team's hard work could have been put to use. We therefore owe a great deal to more than 700 campers who have passed through our doors this summer.

With the 2012 Olympics running alongside our international sessions, the sense of global community felt in London and across the world has once again been echoed here at camp with over 40 nations represented in this year's intake of campers. This magical atmosphere has been helped, I'm sure, by the extended spell of fantastic weather we've experienced.

We can't underestimate the positive influence our international summer camp experience has on our campers; the fact we see many returning faces year after year is a testament to this. This is what we thrive on, furthermore it ensures that we continually endeavour to adapt and improve.

On a final note we'd just like to thank everyone who has helped make Camp Suisse 2012 the biggest and best summer to date. Wherever you are in the world we wish you all the best and hope to see you again next year!

Julie Tyler & Richard Young

Session 3

A Snapshot...

Our Favourite Shots of Summer 2012

With Mark the photographer happily snapping away each day along with the sheer volume of campers and the huge range of activities our campers participated in this year, we'd need a whole library of albums to fit all the photos in. That's why over the next few pages we've included a selection of our favourite snaps from throughout the summer. Our core activities have included the usual morning sessions of languages (French, English, German, Spanish and Italian) and sports, whilst our afternoon sessions have featured some of our in-house favourites which make use of our beautiful surroundings here in the Swiss Alps; including mountain biking, indoor and outdoor climbing, team building games, hiking, nature walking, archery, ghyll scrambling and camping.

With a wealth of must-see/do attractions in the local area we like to whisk our campers off to enjoy what this region of Switzerland has to offer. As well as our usual wet day activities (not so frequent this summer) such as the Cheese and Chocolate factories of Gruyère, the Olympic Museum of Lausanne and Europe's largest indoor water park - Aquaparc, campers petted the husky dogs at Glacier 3000, relaxed on the shores of Lake Geneva at Villeneuve pool, took a trip back in time at Geneva's Natural History Museum, got lost in the Labyrinth Adventure, conquered the dizzying heights of the high ropes at Parc Aventure and took a tumble off a banana boat into Lake Geneva.

Our balanced and, I think fair to say, full programme is a voyage of personal development, learning and fun that gives campers an invaluable and unforgettable experience that will stay with them, we hope, throughout the years.

In case you're having trouble remembering all of those fantastic things you got up to this summer, the next few pages will help the memories come flooding back.

Enjoy!

See You Next Year!

"This is not the end. This is not even the beginning of the end. It is, instead, the end of the beginning" - Winston Churchill

It's with tears in our eyes that we must say goodbye for yet another year. Never fear though as we'll be back next year, and, in-keeping with our consistent pattern, bigger and better than ever before; with plenty of new and exciting ideas in the pipeline for summer 2013 you'd be crazy to miss out.

This year we welcomed back a record number of both campers and staff, some returning for their 4th or 5th seasons. It fills us with a warm, fuzzy feeling to know that others ♥ CS as much as we do.

While we know that we won't see some of you back here next year we thank you for your contribution to Camp Suisse 2012 and wish you all the luck, happiness and success in the world with your future endeavours. For those coming back to us next summer, while we don't want to wish away the year we wait with baited breath to see your beaming faces arrive once more in Torgon.

For now we'll just say aurevoir, arriverderci, hasta la vista, auf wiedersehen and goodbye!
