Letter from the Camp Directors...

Another fantastic and busy summer at Camp Suisse has now drawn to a close. The campers have departed; the mountain bikes, sports equipment and climbing gear have been stored for the winter months ahead in readiness for next summer.

When we opened the doors to our first school groups way back in May the snow continued to fall and we thought the long, yet amazing, winter would never end. By the time Session 1 of our international camps commenced in June the summer sunshine was blazing down on the Swiss Alps and fortunately the fantastic weather stayed with us throughout all three camp sessions.

The campers are really what makes Camp Suisse such a special place and once again we are very proud to say that we attracted campers from over 40 different countries to undertake our multi-activity, sports and language programme. It really is amazing to witness the sense of community that develops within Camp Suisse, where campers and staff from different cultures and backgrounds come together to learn, develop and integrate making lifelong friendships.

We feel that this summer Camp Suisse once again took massive strides towards our primary aim of becoming the ultimate summer camp experience for children and teens from all over the world.

Allowing campers to choose the sport they would like to focus on each morning allowed for marked improvements in the standard of the coaching and the sports sessions as a whole. On the catering side the new five-station lunch buffet proved a massive hit with campers and staff and the dinner menu saw the introduction of new and tasty international cuisine appealing to all palates. The introduction of four new classrooms allowed the language programme to be more adaptable to camper's needs and the new learning resources proved a great hit during the lessons resulting in increased student interaction and enjoyment.

For us however the end of one summer marks the start of something new and we as a team are already working toward making summer 2014 an even more enjoyable and memorable experience for our campers.

A very big thank you must of course go out to our ever-enthusiastic staff who work tirelessly throughout the summer to ensure that our campers are able to enjoy the most amazing summer camp experiences in the safest possible environment.

Thank you once again to everyone involved in Camp Suisse 2013. We would like to wish you a safe and happy end to this year and we hope to see you all at Camp Suisse again next summer!

Julie Tyler & Richard Young

Our Favourite Shots of Summer 2013

With so much packed into your average day at Camp Suisse we would need a whole team of photographers to capture every single moment!! Luckily, Mark our fabulous camp photographer was always on the move and has put together quite a library!

The next few pages contain a selection of our favorite images from a summer of unforgettable moments...

We are extremely lucky here at Camp Suisse, with the natural environment providing scope for a wide variety of Alpine activities right on our doorstep.

Whether it be mountain biking in the Alpine forest, conquering a climbing crag, or navigating round the orienteering trails in the hills, there's always a new and unforgettable experience just around the corner!

Our proximity to Europe's largest Aquaparc and the cheese and chocolate factories of Gruyeres, not to mention the world famous Montreux Jazz Festival ensures that our program perfectly blends fun-filled days with education and offers an invaluable experience that campers will remember for years to come.

Here are some of our favourite shots from this summer.... All parents of 2013 campers have of course already had access to the full image galleries after camp.

Enjoy re-living the moments!
